Module 10: Resources and Virginia Geology
Topic 3 Application: Energy Potential Rubric

	25 Points	20 Points	15 Points	0 Points
Content	The assignment submission defines the energy resource, gives specific locations where the resource can be utilized, and discusses the benefits and issues of using the selected resource.	The assignment submission defines the energy resource but is lacking specific locations where the resource can be utilized or lacking a full discussion of the benefits and issues of using the selected resource.	The assignment submission defines the energy resource but is lacking specific locations where the resource can be utilized and lacking a full discussion of the benefits and issues of using the selected resource.	The submission is missing a definition or the energy resource and specific locations where the resource can be utilized and a full discussion of the benefits and issues of using the selected resource.
References and Support	The response includes extensive references and researched facts.	The response includes some references and researched facts.	The response includes few referenced facts.	The response has no evidence of research.
Clarity and Mechanics	The response is clear, concise, and easy to read. It contains no grammatical or spelling errors.	The response is clear and contains valuable information. There are minor grammatical or spelling errors.	The response contains little information and is confusing. There are grammatical or spelling errors.	The response is disorganized and confusing. There are several grammatical or spelling errors.
Work Cited	The assignment follows MLA format. It also reflects strong research and contains a variety of resources.	The assignment follows MLA format with minor errors. It contains some variety of resources.	The assignment attempts to follow MLA format but contains minor errors. It has very little resource variety.	The assignment does not follow MLA format. It does not reflect strong research.