

Module 12: Insurance- Protecting Yourself and Your Assets
Authentic Assessment: Personal Insurance Plan Rubric

	20 points	15 points	10 points	5 points
Timeline	The timeline is detailed, neat, and easy to understand. It shows at least five scenarios from now through the next 15 years.	The timeline is neat and easy to understand. It shows at least five scenarios from now through the next 15 years.	The timeline includes some events from now to the next 15 years. It shows only 3-4 scenarios.	The timeline includes limited events from now through the next 15 years. It shows less than three scenarios.
Insurance Plans	At least four different types of insurance are included in the plan. The plan lists the needed coverage and contains an explanation on why each type of insurance is needed. The plan is extremely detailed.	At least four different types of insurance are included in the plan. The plan lists the needed coverage and contains an explanation on why each type of insurance is needed.	Three types of insurance are included in the plan. The plan lists the needed coverage and contains an explanation on why each type of insurance is needed. The plan may contain some inaccuracies.	The plan explains less than three types of insurance needed and little explanation for each type. The plan contains many inaccuracies.
Cost	The plan accurately includes the cost of each insurance policy and whether that amount is paid annually or monthly.	The plan includes the cost of each insurance policy and whether that amount is paid annually or monthly.	The plan includes the cost of three insurance policies and whether that amount is paid annually or monthly.	The plan includes the cost of less than two insurance policies. Unclear whether amount is paid annually or monthly.
Insurance Decline Info	The plan explains in detail why you will not need a certain type of insurance.	The plan explains why you will not need a certain type of insurance.	The plan identifies one type of insurance you will not need. Explanation is unclear.	The plan fails to identify an insurance you will not need.
Quality of Work	The final project is neatly and clearly presented. The project is of high quality and creativity. It contains correct spelling and grammar.	The final project is neatly and clearly presented. It contains few spelling and/or grammatical errors.	The final project is neat. Some information is not clearly presented. It contains few spelling and/or grammatical errors.	The final project lacks neatness. The information is not clearly presented. Spelling and grammar errors interfere with understanding.