

Module 7: Survival
Topic 2 Application: Fear and Decisions Rubric

	20 Points	15 Points	10 Points	5 Points
Explanation	The interviews conducted are clearly explained in detail (the purpose of the interview, who was interviewed, what the responses of the different individuals were).	The interviews conducted are clearly explained. Accurately described important information.	Explained who was interviewed. Some important information is omitted.	Explained who was interviewed. Inaccurate or unimportant information is included.
Planning	Careful and thorough planning of the interviews is evident. Every step of the interview process was carefully planned so that the results are accurate, clear, and usable.	Careful planning of the interviews is evident. Some accurate, clear, and usable results are presented.	The interviews were conducted, but some information is inaccurate or irrelevant. Some of the results are difficult to use.	The interviews were not well designed and the results are inaccurate, irrelevant, or not usable.
Evaluation	Accurately described results. Was able to apply the information from the interviews to describe how physical activity can provide long term health benefits.	Accurately described results. Applied most of the information from the interviews to describe how physical activity can provide long term health benefits.	Described most results. Some important information was left out or not well explained.	Described some results. There were errors in the description of the results.
Spelling	There are no spelling mistakes.	There are 1-2 spelling mistakes.	There are 3-4 spelling mistakes.	There are more than 4 spelling mistakes.

Grammar	Consistently applies rules of sentence formation (avoids use of fragments or run-ons), capitalization, punctuation, subject-verb agreement, pronoun agreement, and verb tense.	There are minor issues with sentence formation (use of fragments or run-ons), capitalization, punctuation, subject-verb agreement, pronoun agreement, and verb tense.	There are several issues with sentence formation (use of fragments or run-ons), capitalization, punctuation, subject-verb agreement, pronoun agreement, and verb tense.	There are numerous issues with sentence formation (use of fragments or run-ons), capitalization, punctuation, subject-verb agreement, pronoun agreement, and verb tense which interfere with meaning.
---	---	--	--	--