

Module 6: Examining the World to Discover Truth
Topic 3 Content: Frankenstein Reading Check Part 3

Introduction

On each of the following slides, read the question and select the appropriate answer. Then, click SUBMIT to check your response. Click NEXT to begin.

Module 6: Examining the World to Discover Truth
Topic 3 Content: Frankenstein Reading Check Part 3

Multiple Choice Question 1

1 / 9

Where does Victor go to create a mate for the creature?

- Germany
- Italy
- England
- France

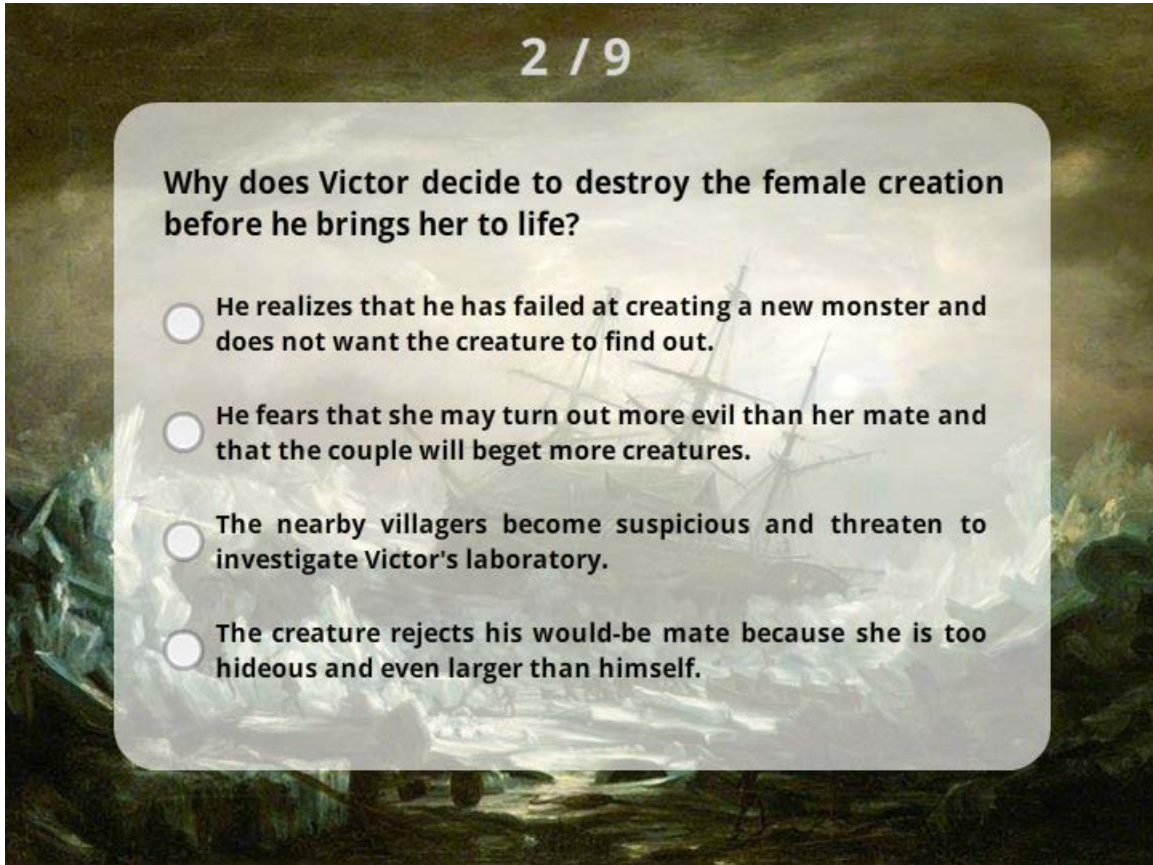

Where does Victor go to create a mate for the creature?

- A. Germany
- B. Italy
- C. England
- D. France

Module 6: Examining the World to Discover Truth
Topic 3 Content: Frankenstein Reading Check Part 3

Multiple Choice Question 2

2 / 9

Why does Victor decide to destroy the female creation before he brings her to life?

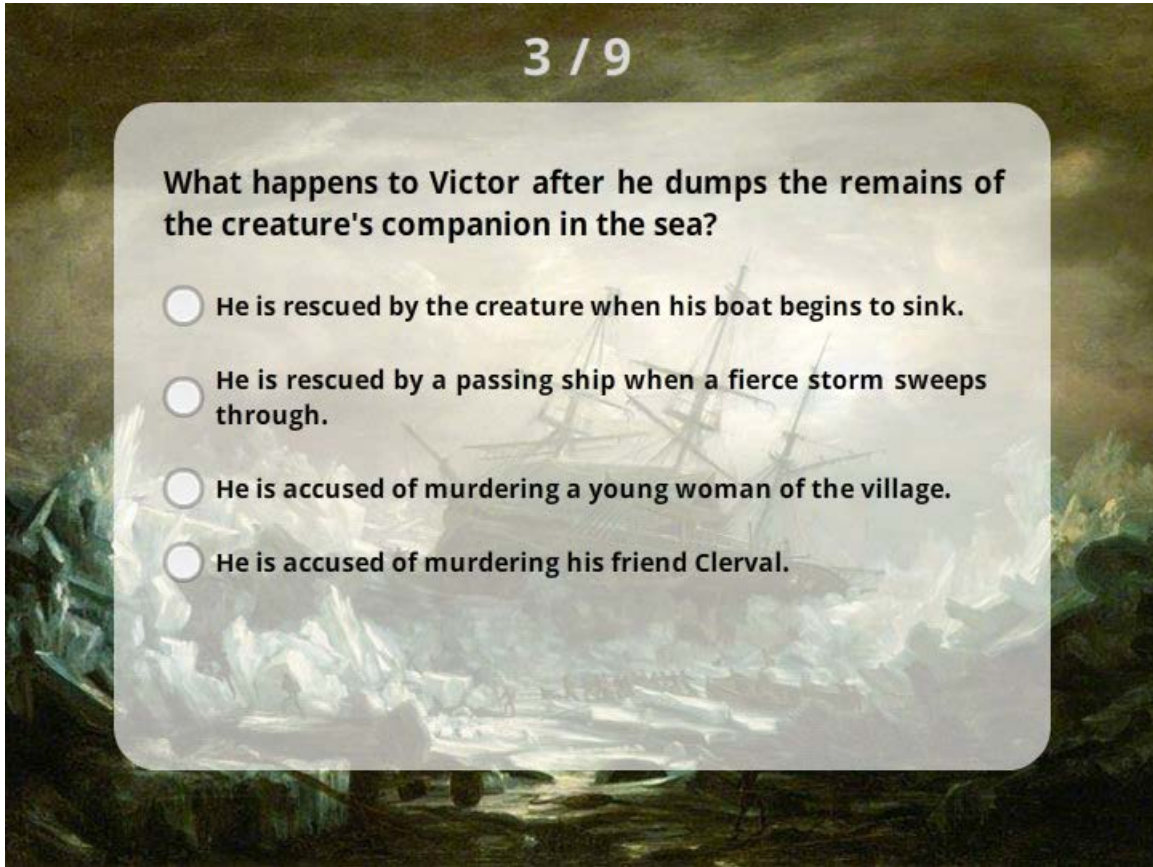

- He realizes that he has failed at creating a new monster and does not want the creature to find out.
- He fears that she may turn out more evil than her mate and that the couple will beget more creatures.
- The nearby villagers become suspicious and threaten to investigate Victor's laboratory.
- The creature rejects his would-be mate because she is too hideous and even larger than himself.

Why does Victor decide to destroy the female creation before he brings her to life?

- A. He realizes that he has failed at creating a new monster and does not want the creature to find out.
- B. He fears that she may turn out more evil than her mate and that the couple will beget more creatures.
- C. The nearby villagers become suspicious and threaten to investigate Victor's laboratory.
- D. The creature rejects his would-be mate because she is too hideous and even larger than himself.

Module 6: Examining the World to Discover Truth
Topic 3 Content: Frankenstein Reading Check Part 3

Multiple Choice Question 3

3 / 9

What happens to Victor after he dumps the remains of the creature's companion in the sea?

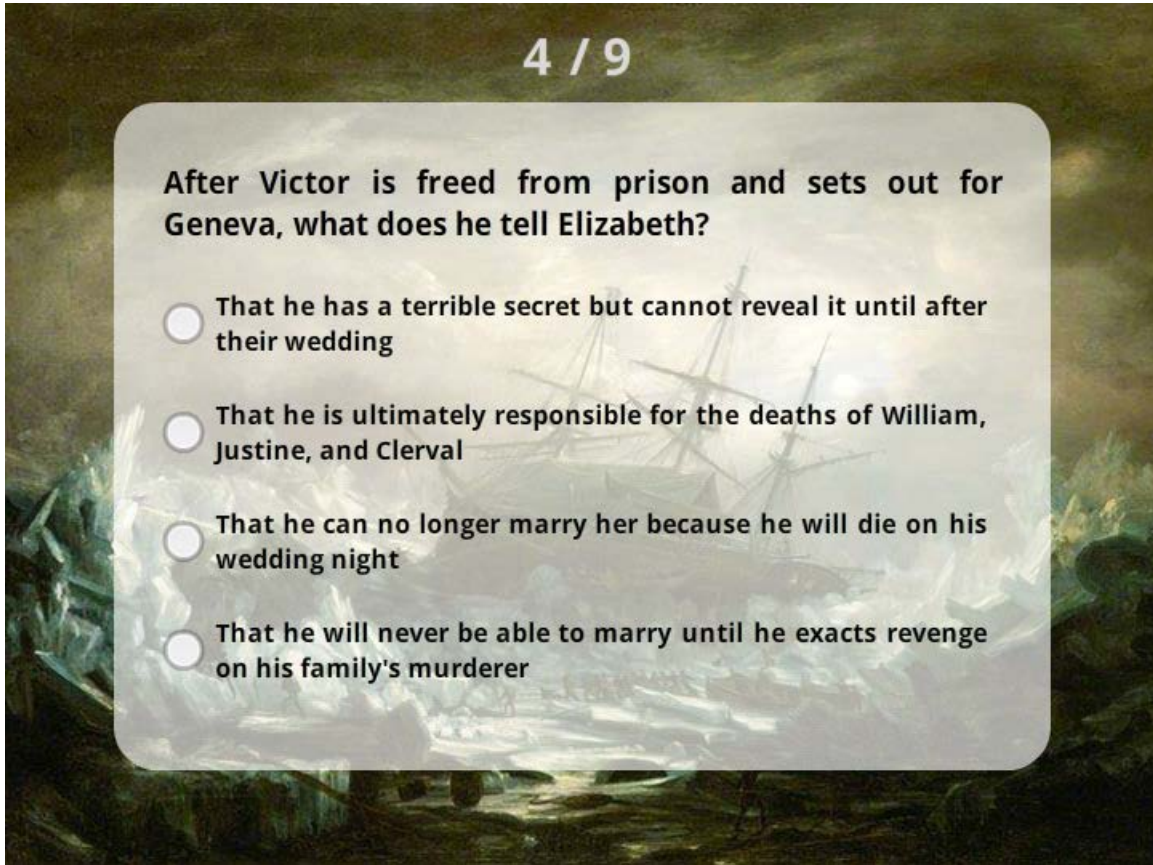

- He is rescued by the creature when his boat begins to sink.
- He is rescued by a passing ship when a fierce storm sweeps through.
- He is accused of murdering a young woman of the village.
- He is accused of murdering his friend Clerval.

What happens to Victor after he dumps the remains of the creature's companion in the sea?

- A. He is rescued by the creature when his boat begins to sink.
- B. He is rescued by a passing ship when a fierce storm sweeps through.
- C. He is accused of murdering a young woman of the village.
- D. He is accused of murdering his friend Clerval.

Module 6: Examining the World to Discover Truth
Topic 3 Content: Frankenstein Reading Check Part 3

Multiple Choice Question 4

4 / 9

After Victor is freed from prison and sets out for Geneva, what does he tell Elizabeth?

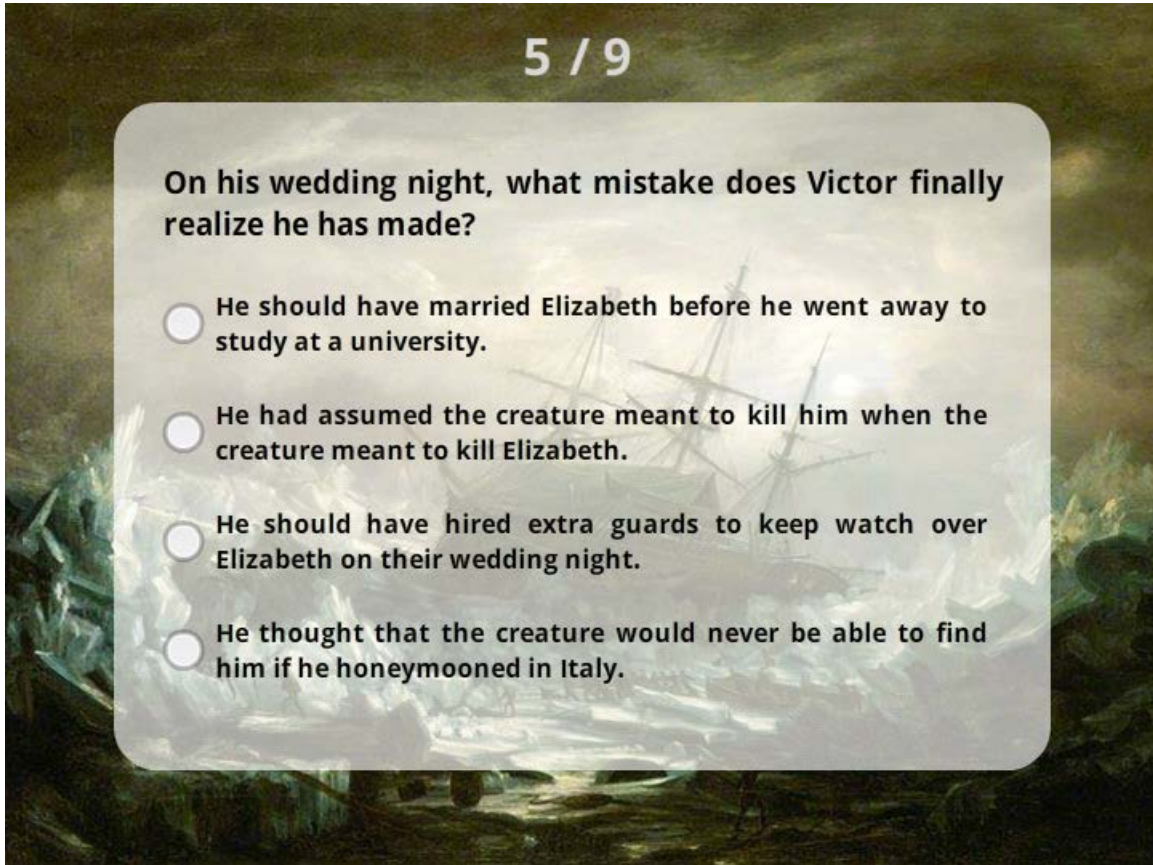

- That he has a terrible secret but cannot reveal it until after their wedding
- That he is ultimately responsible for the deaths of William, Justine, and Clerval
- That he can no longer marry her because he will die on his wedding night
- That he will never be able to marry until he exacts revenge on his family's murderer

After Victor is freed from prison and sets out for Geneva, what does he tell Elizabeth?

- A. That he has a terrible secret but cannot reveal it until after their wedding
- B. That he is ultimately responsible for the deaths of William, Justine, and Clerval
- C. That he can no longer marry her because he will die on his wedding night
- D. That he will never be able to marry until he exacts revenge on his family's murderer

Module 6: Examining the World to Discover Truth
Topic 3 Content: Frankenstein Reading Check Part 3

Multiple Choice Question 5

5 / 9

On his wedding night, what mistake does Victor finally realize he has made?

- He should have married Elizabeth before he went away to study at a university.
- He had assumed the creature meant to kill him when the creature meant to kill Elizabeth.
- He should have hired extra guards to keep watch over Elizabeth on their wedding night.
- He thought that the creature would never be able to find him if he honeymooned in Italy.

On his wedding night, what mistake does Victor finally realize he has made?

- A. He should have married Elizabeth before he went away to study at a university.
- B. He had assumed the creature meant to kill him when the creature meant to kill Elizabeth.
- C. He should have hired extra guards to keep watch over Elizabeth on their wedding night.
- D. He thought that the creature would never be able to find him if he honeymooned in Italy.

Module 6: Examining the World to Discover Truth
Topic 3 Content: Frankenstein Reading Check Part 3

Multiple Choice Question 6

6 / 9

How does Victor contribute to his father's death?

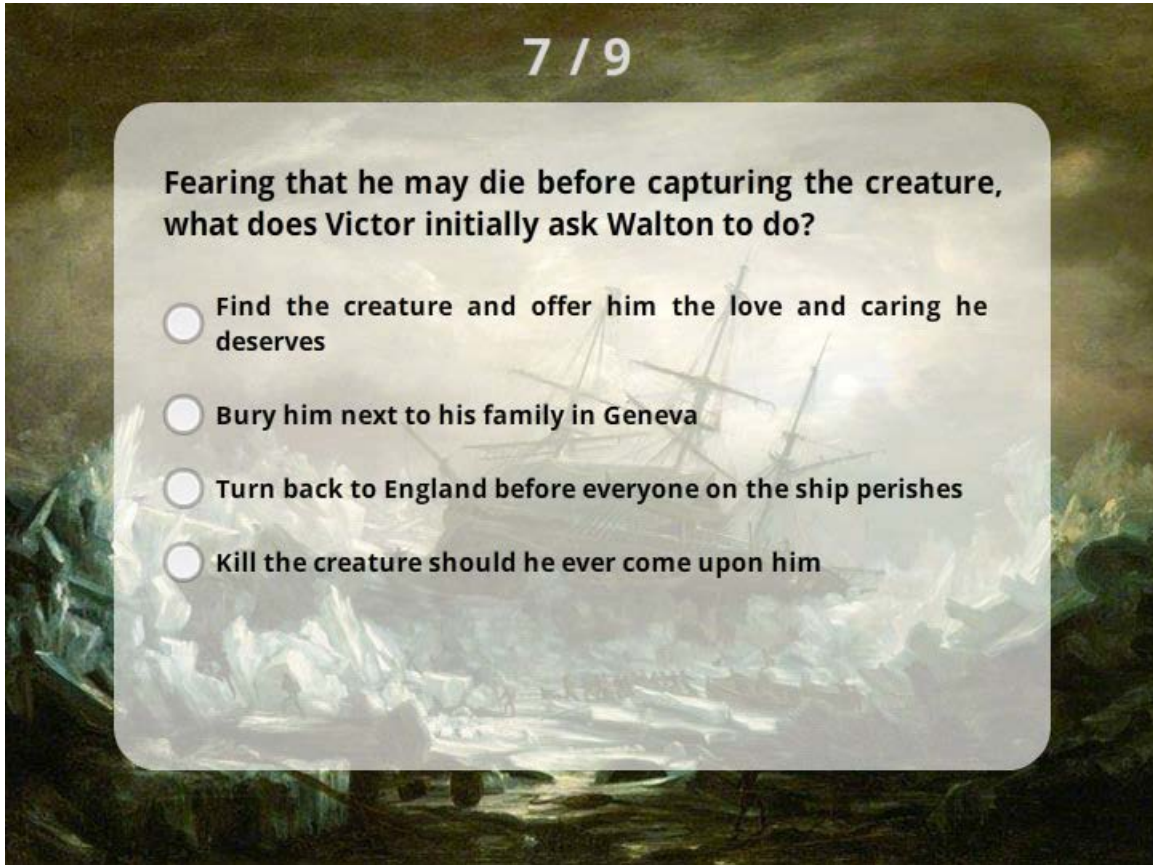

- He neglects to protect his father despite the creature's threats to strangle him.
- He refuses to marry Elizabeth, and his father dies of a broken heart.
- He brings his father the news that Elizabeth has been killed, and the grief overwhelms him.
- He leaves his father to fend for himself while he takes off after the creature to get revenge.

How does Victor contribute to his father's death?

- A. He neglects to protect his father despite the creature's threats to strangle him.
- B. He refuses to marry Elizabeth, and his father dies of a broken heart.
- C. He brings his father the news that Elizabeth has been killed, and the grief overwhelms him.
- D. He leaves his father to fend for himself while he takes off after the creature to get revenge.

Module 6: Examining the World to Discover Truth
Topic 3 Content: Frankenstein Reading Check Part 3

Multiple Choice Question 7

7 / 9

Fearing that he may die before capturing the creature, what does Victor initially ask Walton to do?

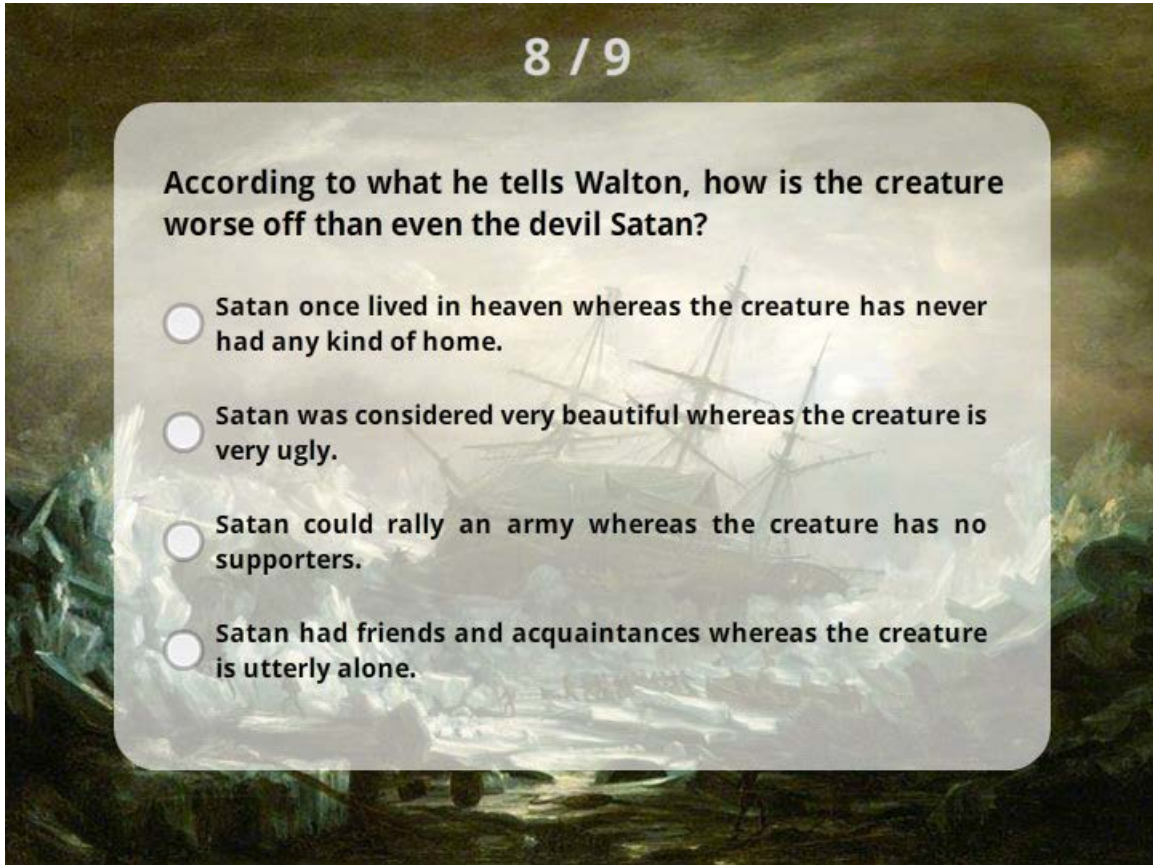

- Find the creature and offer him the love and caring he deserves
- Bury him next to his family in Geneva
- Turn back to England before everyone on the ship perishes
- Kill the creature should he ever come upon him

Fearing that he may die before capturing the creature, what does Victor initially ask Walton to do?

- A. Find the creature and offer him the love and caring he deserves
- B. Bury him next to his family in Geneva
- C. Turn back to England before everyone on the ship perishes
- D. Kill the creature should he ever come upon him

Module 6: Examining the World to Discover Truth
Topic 3 Content: Frankenstein Reading Check Part 3

Multiple Choice Question 8

8 / 9

According to what he tells Walton, how is the creature worse off than even the devil Satan?

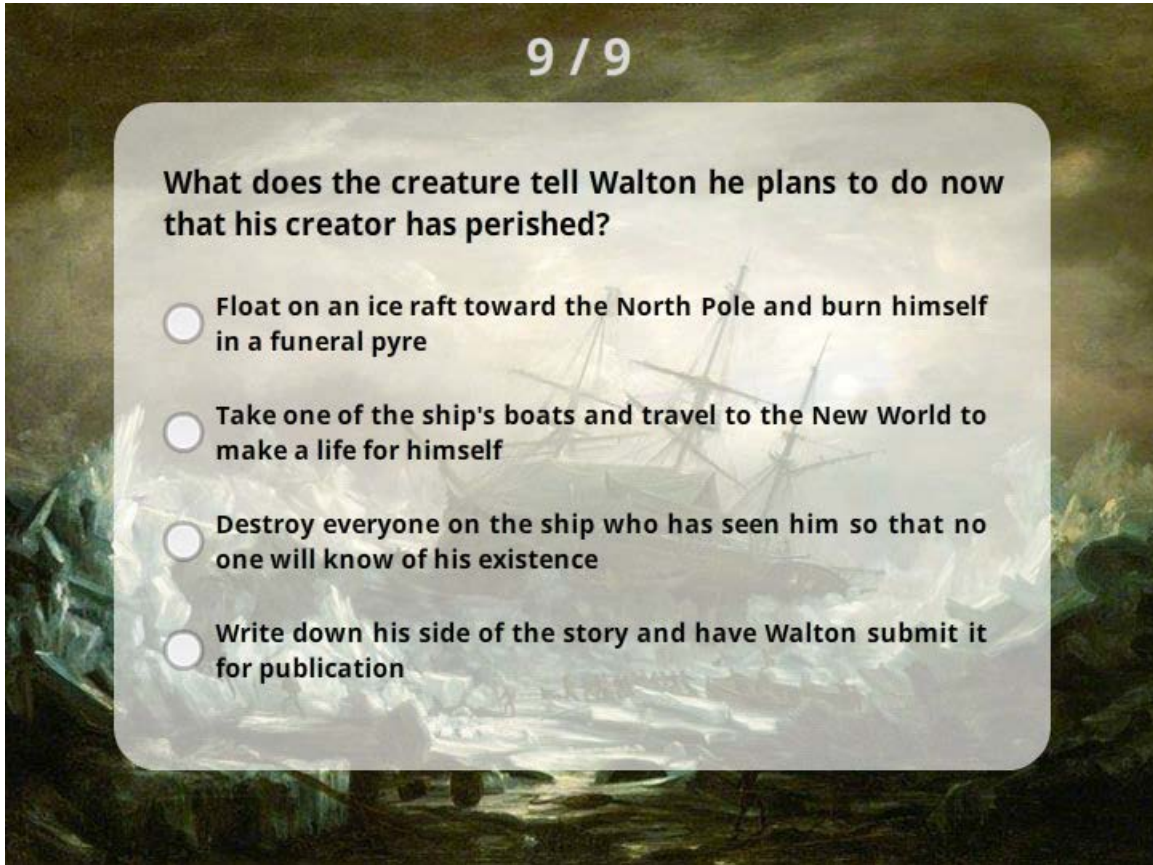

- Satan once lived in heaven whereas the creature has never had any kind of home.
- Satan was considered very beautiful whereas the creature is very ugly.
- Satan could rally an army whereas the creature has no supporters.
- Satan had friends and acquaintances whereas the creature is utterly alone.

According to what he tells Walton, how is the creature worse off than even the devil Satan?

- A. Satan once lived in heaven whereas the creature has never had any kind of home.
- B. Satan was considered very beautiful whereas the creature is very ugly.
- C. Satan could rally an army whereas the creature has no supporters.
- D. Satan had friends and acquaintances whereas the creature is utterly alone.

Module 6: Examining the World to Discover Truth
Topic 3 Content: Frankenstein Reading Check Part 3

Multiple Choice Question 9

9 / 9

What does the creature tell Walton he plans to do now that his creator has perished?

- Float on an ice raft toward the North Pole and burn himself in a funeral pyre
- Take one of the ship's boats and travel to the New World to make a life for himself
- Destroy everyone on the ship who has seen him so that no one will know of his existence
- Write down his side of the story and have Walton submit it for publication

What does the creature tell Walton he plans to do now that his creator has perished?

- A. Float on an ice raft toward the North Pole and burn himself in a funeral pyre
- B. Take one of the ship's boats and travel to the New World to make a life for himself
- C. Destroy everyone on the ship who has seen him so that no one will know of his existence
- D. Write down his side of the story and have Walton submit it for publication