Act III, Scene iv

Act III, Scene iv

The fourth scene is very short, but it is hugely important. Right after Romeo makes plans to visit Juliet before leaving the city, Paris pays a visit to Capulet, Juliet's father. What decision does Capulet make about his daughter? What is going to happen on Thursday morning? This new upcoming event certainly does not fit into Romeo's plans.

Now read Scene iv of Act III, and then click NEXT for a preview of Scene v.

Act III, Scene v

Act III, Scene v

In the final scene, Romeo and Juliet are sharing a tender moment together in her room when they are interrupted by the nurse telling them that Lady Capulet is coming to the chamber. What "glad tidings" does Lady Capulet bring Juliet? How does Juliet react? How does Capulet behave when Juliet talks to him? Notice that in order to escape Capulet's decision, Juliet pleads with her father first, then her mother, and finally the nurse. How does the nurse react? Whom does Juliet decide to go see in order to escape this terrible problem?

Now read Scene v of Act III.
