

Module 2: Enchanté!

Topic 3 Content: Using "The"

Introduction

Using "The"

Introduction

Le, la, l', and les are translated as the definite article "the." Although these words are always spoken or written in French, at times, you do not actually say the word "the" when you translate the sentence. In this interactivity, click the NEXT button at the bottom of the player to advance to the next use of "the".

Le, la, l', and les are translated as the definite article "the." Although these words are always spoken or written in French, at times, you do not actually say the word "the" when you translate the sentence. In this interactivity, click the NEXT button at the bottom of the player to advance to the next use of "the".

Module 2: Enchanté!

Topic 3 Content: Using “The”

Le

Using "The"

Le

Le is used for all masculine nouns.

Image: Le football

Le is used for all masculine nouns.

Image: Le football

Module 2: Enchanté!
Topic 3 Content: Using “The”

La

Using "The"

La

La is used for all feminine nouns.

Image: La pizza

La is used for all feminine nouns.

Image: La pizza

Module 2: Enchanté!
Topic 3 Content: Using “The”

L'

Using "The"

L'

L' is used for any word that begins with a vowel and/or has a silent H.

Image: L'homme

L' is used for any word that begins with a vowel and/or has a silent H.

Image: L'homme

Module 2: Enchanté!
Topic 3 Content: Using “The”

Les

Using "The"

Les

Les is used for all plural nouns, whether they are masculine or feminine.

Image: Les escargots

Les is used for all plural nouns, whether they are masculine or feminine.

Image: Les escargots