

Module 6: Ocean Water Chemistry

Topic 5: Water Cycle And Local Communities Presentation Assignment Rubric

Category	Four Points	Three Points	Two Points	One Point
Content Accuracy	The presentation included a compelling explanation of the water cycle's importance and insightful remarks about the harmful affects of human activity.	The presentation included a general explanation of the water cycle's importance and the harmful affects of human activity.	The presentation included some explanation of the water cycle's importance and minimal identification of the harmful affects of human activity.	The presentation's explanation of the water cycle's importance was confusing and/or lacked identification of the harmful affects of human activity.
Learning of Content	Well-designed and thoroughly labeled illustration of the entire water cycle.	General and accurate labeled illustration of the entire water cycle.	Accurate but incomplete labeled illustration of the entire water cycle.	Inaccurate and incomplete labeled illustration of the entire water cycle.
Readability	The overall appearance of the presentation is pleasing and easy to read.	The overall appearance of the presentation is somewhat pleasing and easy to read.	The presentation is readable, but lacks attention to design.	The presentation is confusing and unreadable.
Spelling and Grammar	No spelling or grammatical errors.	One to two spelling or grammatical errors.	Three to four spelling or grammatical errors.	More than four spelling or grammatical errors.
Citations	Sources of information are properly cited so that the audience can determine the credibility and authority of the information presented.	Most sources of information use proper citation and sources are documented to make it possible to check on the accuracy of information.	Sometimes copyright guidelines are followed and some information does not use proper citations.	None of the references included are complete.