

Module 9: Psychological Disorders and Treatment

Authentic Assessment: Character Diagnosis Video Rubric

	20 Points	15 Points	10 Points	5 Points	0 Points
Digital Components	Various forms of media are integrated into the movie scene and the choice of media heavily enriches the overall piece.	The video uses multiple forms of media and the choice of media is often appropriate for the movie scene.	The video uses two forms of media, but they are poorly integrated into the movie scene.	The video uses at least one form of media, but it is poorly integrated into the movie scene.	The movie scene is static and does not integrate any forms of digital media.
Content	The movie scene exceeds at describing the effects of the character's psychological disorder, how life differs because of the diagnosis, misconceptions about the disorder, and strategies for coping.	The movie scene appropriately describes the effects of the character's psychological disorder, how life differs because of the diagnosis, misconceptions about the disorder, and strategies for coping.	The movie scene adequately describes the effects of the character's psychological disorder, how life differs because of the diagnosis, misconceptions about the disorder, and strategies for coping.	The movie scene somewhat describes the effects of the character's psychological disorder, how life differs because of the diagnosis, misconceptions about the disorder, and strategies for coping.	The movie scene does not describe the effects of the character's psychological disorder, how life differs because of the diagnosis, misconceptions about the disorder, and strategies for coping.
Time	The length of the movie scene meets the minimum requirement of two minutes.				The length of the movie scene does not meet the minimum requirement of two minutes.
Appeal and Creativity	The movie scene tells a dynamic and creative story that is engaging, entertaining, and compelling to an audience.	The movie scene tells a creative story that is very interesting to an audience.	The movie scene tells a simple story that is somewhat interesting to an audience.	The movie scene is understandable, but it does not tell a story. It is minimally interesting to an audience.	The movie scene is difficult to understand. It does not hold the audience's attention.
Works Cited	A Works Cited document is submitted and it is properly formatted.				A Works Cited document is not submitted.
			A Works Cited document is submitted, but it is not properly formatted		