

Tips for Viewing and Navigating Course Interactivities Virginia and United States History

Throughout the course, you will find interactivities used to deliver content. The layout of interactivities will vary depending on the content. In most instances, audio will be included in the interactivity. This document provides tips for viewing and navigating course interactivities.

Player Buttons

Some interactivities use player buttons to control navigation. Instructions on how to navigate these learning objects are included in the interactivity.

Voyage to New England

Resources

"Mayflower in Plymouth Harbor" by William Halsall

Arriving in New England first were the Pilgrims, a group of separatists. Most of these Pilgrims had sought religious refuge in Holland before the voyage to the New World. The Pilgrims were primarily common people with little education or wealth. The Pilgrims obtained a colonial charter, boarded the Mayflower, and arrived in the New World in 1620.

PILGRIMS

◀

< PREV NEXT >

Resources:
Click on the Resources menu to view interactivity resources, including a .pdf version of the interactivity.

Volume:
Use the slider to change the interactivity volume.

Player Buttons:
Replay the current slide or move backwards and forwards in the interactivity.

Tips for Viewing and Navigating Course Interactivities Virginia and United States History

Sliders

Some interactivities use a slider to control navigation. Instructions on how to navigate these learning objects are included in the interactivity.

The screenshot shows an interactive interface for 'Leading Up to Colonization'. At the top left, it says 'Leading to Colonization'. The main title is 'Leading Up to Colonization' in large, bold, black text. Below the title, there is a large image of a three-masted sailing ship on the water. In the bottom left corner of the interactive, there is a navigation slider with five circular buttons. The first button is highlighted with a red circle and a red arrow pointing to it from the left. In the bottom right corner, there is a volume control icon (a speaker) also highlighted with a red circle and a red arrow pointing to it from the left. In the top right corner, there is a 'Resources' button highlighted with a red circle and a red arrow pointing to it from the right.

Instructions:
Follow the on-screen, or audio, instructions to navigate the interactivity.

Volume:
Use the slider to change the interactivity volume.

Resources:
Click on the Resources menu to view interactivity resources, including a .pdf version of the interactivity.

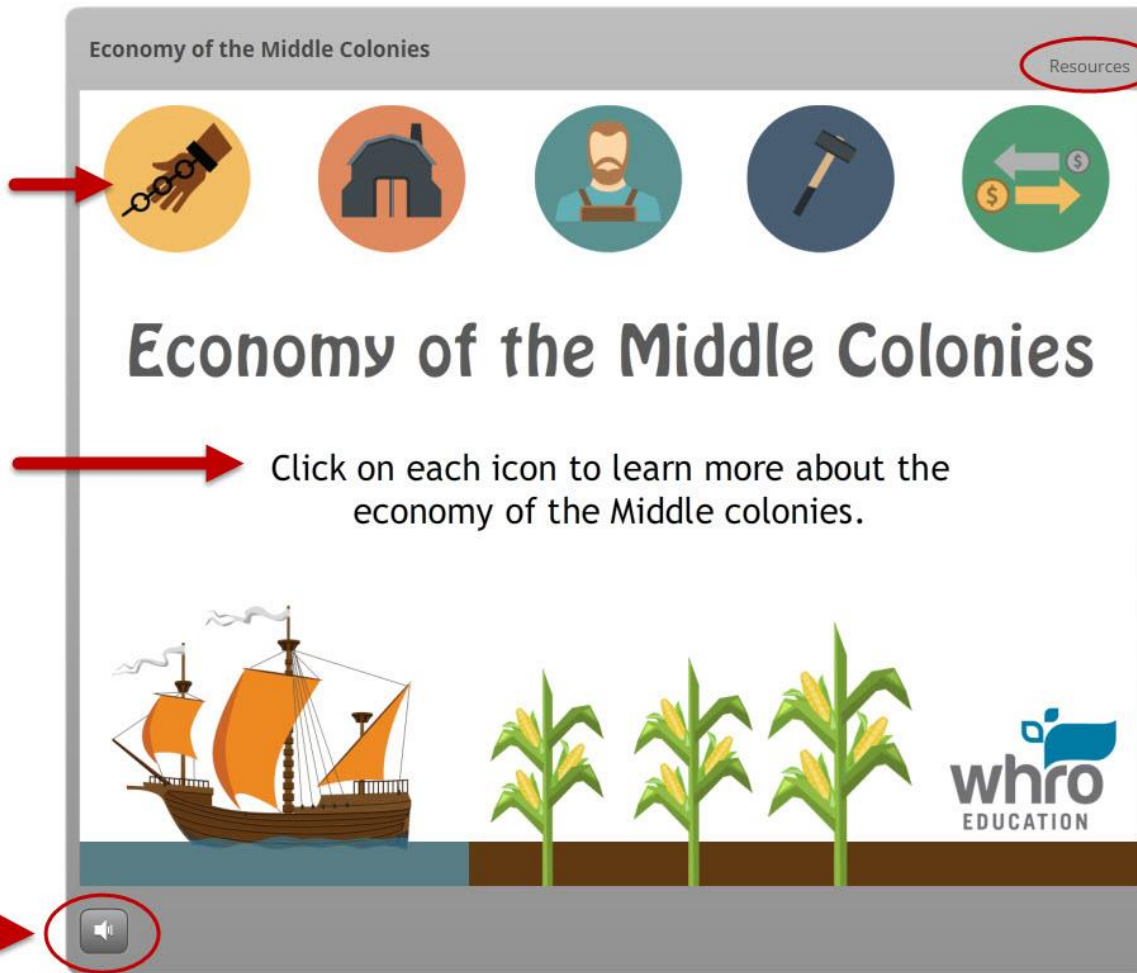

Tips for Viewing and Navigating Course Interactivities

Virginia and United States History

Icons

Some interactivities use clickable icons to control navigation. Instructions on how to navigate these learning objects are included in the interactivity.

Icons:
Click on the icons to navigate the interactivity.

Instructions:
Follow the on-screen, or audio, instructions to navigate the interactivity.

Resources:
Click on the Resources menu to view interactivity resources, including a .pdf version of the interactivity.

Volume:
Use the slider to change the interactivity volume.

Tips for Viewing and Navigating Course Interactivities Virginia and United States History

Tabs

Some interactivities use tabs to control navigation. Instructions on how to navigate these learning objects are included in the interactivity.

Tabs:
Click the tabs to navigate the interactivity.

The screenshot shows an interactive interface for 'Slavery in the Southern Colonies'. At the top right, there is a 'Resources' button circled in red. Below the title, there are five navigation tabs: 'Evolution of Slavery', 'European Slave Trade', 'The Middle Passage', 'Southern Slave Labor', and 'Culture and Family'. The 'Evolution of Slavery' tab is highlighted with a red arrow. The main content area features a large image of a rusty chain with the title 'Slavery in the Southern Colonies' overlaid in large black text. The 'whro EDUCATION' logo is in the bottom right corner. At the bottom left, there is a volume control icon circled in red.

Resources:
Click on the Resources menu to view interactivity resources, including a .pdf version of the interactivity.

Volume:
Use the slider to change the interactivity volume.

Tips for Viewing and Navigating Course Interactivities

Virginia and United States History

Panels

Some interactivities will use panels to control navigation. Instructions on how to navigate these learning objects are included in the interactivity.

Resources

The Quakers, Pennsylvania, and Delaware

Introduction

The Landing of William Penn, Jean Leon Jerome Ferris

In this interactivity, click on each of the panels to learn about William Penn and the Quakers, the colonization of Pennsylvania, relationships with the American Indians, and the colonization of Delaware.

- William Penn and the Quakers
- The Colonization of Pennsylvania
- Relationships with the American Indians
- Colonization of Delaware

Volume: Use the slider to change the interactivity volume.

Resources: Click on the Resources menu to view interactivity resources, including a .pdf version of the interactivity.

Panels: Click on the panels to navigate the interactivity.

Tips for Viewing and Navigating Course Interactivities Virginia and United States History

Additional Features: Scroll Bar

In some interactivities, a scroll bar displays larger amounts of text. The interactivity shown below includes the use of a scroll bar.

The screenshot shows an interactive slide titled "New Political Parties". The main content is a historical poster with an American flag design. The text on the poster reads: "NATIVE AMERICANS. BEWARE OF FOREIGN INFLUENCE". Below the poster is a text box with a scroll bar. The text in the box reads: "Another political party that evolved was the Know-Nothing Party, characterized by its favoritism of native-born Americans. People who favor only the people of their own country are called nativists. Members of this party were unhappy with the influx of". At the bottom of the slide, there are three controls: a volume icon on the left, and "PREV" and "NEXT" buttons on the right.

Volume:
Use the slider to change the interactivity volume.

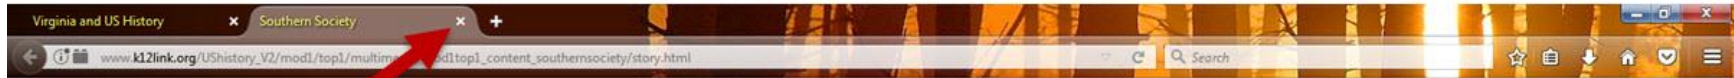

Scroll Bar:
Use the scroll bar to view all of the associated text.

Player Buttons:
Replay the current slide or move backwards and forwards in the interactivity.

Tips for Viewing and Navigating Course Interactivities Virginia and United States History

How to Exit an Interactivity

All interactivities are set to open in a new browser window. To exit an interactivity, simply close the browser window by clicking the “x” located in the corresponding window tab.

Exit the Interactivity:
Exit the interactivity by closing the browser's tab.

A screenshot of an interactivity page titled 'Southern Society'. The page features a large image of a plantation house with a white facade and a red roof, surrounded by large trees. Below the image is a section titled 'PLANTATION OWNERS AND SMALL FARMERS'. The text describes the Southern colonies' economies based on large plantations. A 'Resources' link is visible in the top right corner of the interactivity frame. A speaker icon is located at the bottom left of the frame.

Tips for Viewing and Navigating Course Interactivities Virginia and United States History

How to Exit an Interactivity (continued)

Some interactivities include on-screen instructions and buttons used to restart or exit the interactivity.

Exit or Restart:
Exit or restart the interactivity by clicking
the desired button.