Monotheism

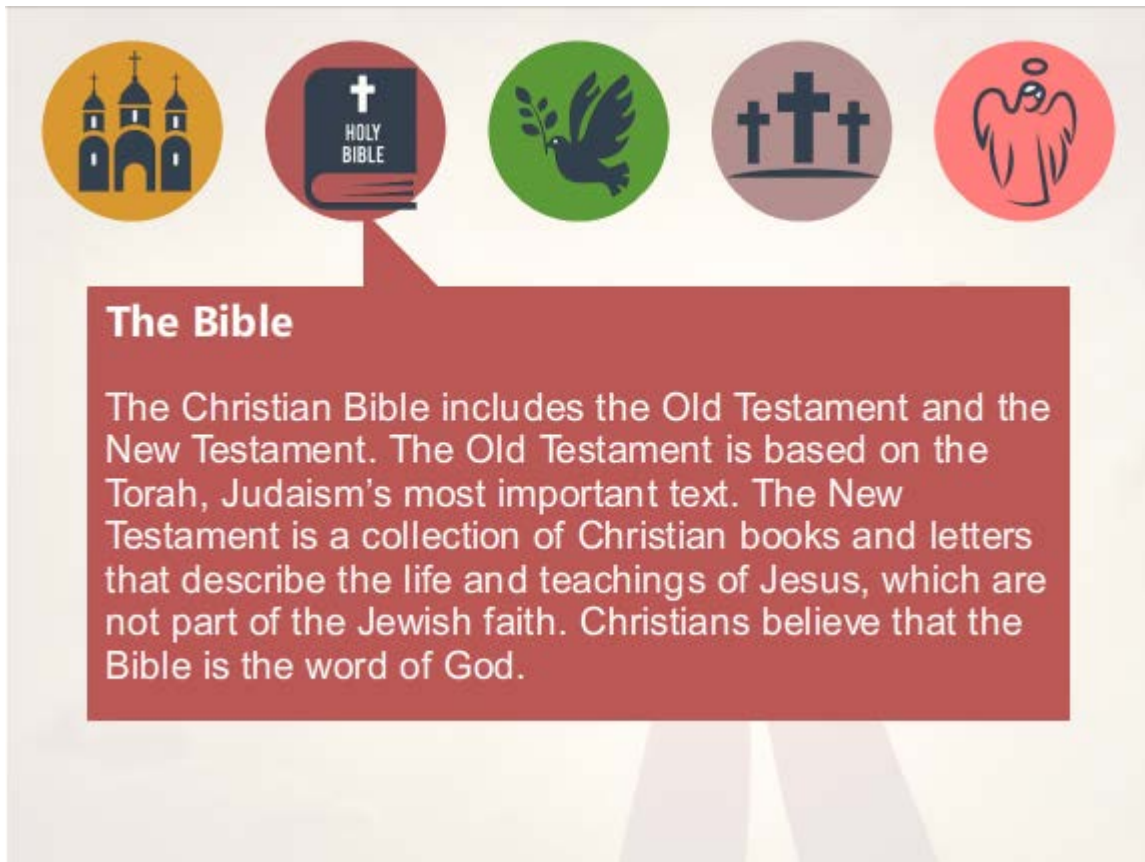

The infographic features five circular icons at the top: a church, a book labeled 'HOLY BIBLE', a dove, three crosses, and an angel. Below these icons is a large orange speech bubble containing the text: 'Monotheism' followed by 'Christians believe there is only one God who is all-knowing, all-powerful, and present everywhere. In addition, Christians believe that God is sovereign, or in complete control.'

The Bible

The infographic features five circular icons at the top: a yellow circle with a church, a red circle with a book labeled 'HOLY BIBLE', a green circle with a dove, a purple circle with three crosses, and a pink circle with an angel. A red speech bubble points to the 'HOLY BIBLE' icon.

The Bible

The Christian Bible includes the Old Testament and the New Testament. The Old Testament is based on the Torah, Judaism's most important text. The New Testament is a collection of Christian books and letters that describe the life and teachings of Jesus, which are not part of the Jewish faith. Christians believe that the Bible is the word of God.

The Trinity

The infographic features five circular icons at the top: a church with three domes, a book labeled 'HOLY BIBLE', a dove with an olive branch, three crosses, and an angel. A green speech bubble points to the dove icon and contains the following text:

The Trinity

Christians believe that God is three in one, or a Holy Trinity. This means the father, son, and Holy Spirit are combined into one God. Jesus is both the son of God and an incarnation of God.

The Resurrection

The infographic features five circular icons at the top: a church, a Bible, a dove, a cross, and an angel. Below these icons is a speech bubble containing the title 'The Resurrection' and a paragraph of text. The background of the infographic shows a person's legs walking.

The Resurrection

Jesus was crucified on the cross. He died and was buried outside of Jerusalem. Christians believe that on the third day after his death, Jesus was resurrected, meaning his physical form ascended into heaven.
