

Module 10: The Cold War

Authentic Assessment: Top Ten Events of the Cold War Rubric

	25 Points	20 Points	15 Points	10 Points
Cold War Events	The ten events chosen are relevant and important. Ten events of the Cold War are rank ordered from 1-10.	Most of the ten events chosen are relevant and important. Ten events of the Cold War are rank ordered from 1-10.	Some of the events chosen are somewhat relevant and important. Ten events of the Cold War are rank ordered from 1-10.	The ten events chosen are not relevant and/or important.
Rank Order Explanation	Two to three sentences clearly describe why each event should be ordered in that position.	Two to three sentences state why each event should be ordered in that position.	Sentences somewhat explain why each event should be ordered in that position.	Events are not rank ordered or there is limited explanation on why each event should be ordered in that position.
Event Description	Each event is accurately and insightfully described in two to three sentences detailing why the event is important.	Each event is accurately described in two to three sentences detailing why the event is important.	Each event is somewhat accurately described detailing why the event is important.	Events are not accurately described. There is limited explanation on why the event is important.
Timeline	Events are in chronological order on the timeline. Each event has a date and one relevant image.	Most events are in chronological order on the timeline. Each event has a date and one relevant image.	Some events are in chronological order on the timeline. Most events have a date and one relevant image.	Few events are in chronological order on the timeline. Few events have a date and one relevant image.

Total ____/100 points