

Module 11: Independence, Religion and Conditions of the Modern World

Authentic Assessment: Independence Movement Presentation

	20 points	15 points	10 points	5 points
Country's Independence	Your country is clearly identified, including the year it gained its independence and you clearly and accurately describe how your country gained its independence. Major leaders, events, and issues are clearly and accurately discussed.	Your country is clearly identified, including the year it gained its independence and you accurately describe how your country gained its independence. Major leaders, events, and issues are accurately discussed.	Your country is clearly identified, including the year it gained its independence and you somewhat accurately describe how your country gained its independence. Major leaders, events, and issues are discussed.	Your country is clearly identified, including the year it gained its independence. There is limited information on how your country gained its independence. Major leaders, events, and issues receive limited discussion.
Citizen Experiences	Accurately and insightfully described the experiences of a citizen including political and economic issues.	Described the experiences of a citizen including political and economic issues.	Somewhat described the experiences of a citizen including political and economic issues.	Limited or no description of the experiences of a citizen.
Relevant Issues	Accurately and clearly identified 3 relevant issues occurring in your country from the time your country gained independence to 10 years after.	Accurately identified 2 relevant issues occurring in your country from the time your country gained independence to 10 years after.	Identified 1 relevant issues occurring in your country from the time your country gained independence to 10 years after.	Incorrectly identified relevant issues.
Mechanics	Capitalization and punctuation are correct throughout the presentation Does not contain any spelling or grammatical errors.	Capitalization and punctuation are correct throughout the presentation. Contains few spelling and/or grammatical errors.	Most capitalization and punctuation are correct throughout the presentation. Contains some spelling and/or grammatical errors.	Capitalization and punctuation are not correct throughout the presentation. Contains frequent spelling and/or grammatical errors.

Module 11: Independence, Religion and Conditions of the Modern World
Authentic Assessment: Independence Movement Presentation

Layout and Graphics	Layout is extremely organized; presentation is visually appealing, containing color and graphics that help to describe content	Layout is organized; presentation is appealing, but could use more color and/or graphics to help to describe content	Layout is somewhat organized; presentation is somewhat appealing and/or effective at describing content	Layout is confusing; presentation is not visually appealing and is ineffectively describing content
----------------------------	--	--	---	---