

Module 7: Industrial Revolution and Its Impact

Authentic Assessment: New Technology for a Colony or Protectorate Rubric

	20 points	15 points	10 points	5 points
Location	The proposal clearly explains whether you live in a colony or a protectorate. It includes a detailed description of the location of the colony/protectorate and mother country.	The proposal explains whether you live in a colony or a protectorate. It includes a description of the location of the colony/protectorate and mother country.	The proposal somewhat explains whether you live in a colony or a protectorate. It includes limited information on the location of the colony/protectorate and mother country.	The proposal does not explain whether you live in a colony or a protectorate. The location of the colony/protectorate and mother country is vague and/or missing.
Advancements	The proposal clearly explains at least three industrial age advancements you believe would be beneficial for the colony or protectorate.	The proposal explains at least three industrial age advancements you believe would be beneficial for the colony or protectorate.	The proposal somewhat explains at least three industrial age advancements you believe would be beneficial for the colony or protectorate.	The proposal has a limited/vague explanation of at least three industrial age advancements you believe would be beneficial for the colony or protectorate.
Benefits	The proposal clearly explains how advancements would benefit the indigenous population and the mother country. It contains two examples for each.	The proposal explains how advancements would benefit the indigenous population and the mother country. It contains two examples for each.	The proposal somewhat explains how advancements would benefit the indigenous population and the mother country. It contains one example for each.	The proposal has a limited/vague explanation of how advancements would benefit the indigenous population and the mother country. It contains one or no example for each.
Consequences	The proposal clearly explains at least two potential consequences of the industrial age advancements and how the benefits outweigh the consequences.	The proposal explains at least two potential consequences of the industrial age advancements and how the benefits outweigh the consequences.	The proposal somewhat explains at least one potential consequences of the industrial age advancements and how the benefits outweigh the consequences.	The proposal has a limited/vague explanation of the potential consequences of the industrial age advancements and how the benefits outweigh the consequences.
Organization and Mechanics	The proposal is well-organized. It does not contain any spelling or grammatical errors.	The proposal is well-organized. It includes few sentence, punctuation, grammatical, or spelling errors.	The proposal is coherent but not well-organized. It contains many sentence, punctuation, grammatical, or spelling errors.	The proposal is poorly-organized. It contains many sentence, punctuation, grammatical, or spelling errors which interfere with understanding.

Total _____/100 points